

Flash Networking 26/1/16

- Be bold
- Ask questions
- Be trustworthy and honest
- Persist
- Dare to be different
- Focus on what you can affect
- Let go of things that don't work – no matter how much you love them or how long you've always done it that way
- Let go of failures – don't let them stop you trying
- Prepare and plan for the unexpected
- Get the work/life balance right
- Reduce stress – maybe by including specific de-stress activities
- Embrace change – it's going to happen anyway
- Have proper procedures in place – saves time and ensures standards
- Constant awareness of strengths and weaknesses and how to build on/improve
- Frequent review/reform/regeneration but make sure you act on findings
- Focus on what works
- Accept – even seek – help
- Develop contacts through networking
- Find like-minded people
- Do new things and learn from them
- Behave ethically at all times – good for you as well as for your business!
- Increase face-to-face contact; reduce email and text
- Know your brand and stay on it
